

Are you a coach ready to looking to expand your repertoire of tools and approaches of supporting teams in the virtual, remote and hybrid space? As workspaces reconnect, it's critical to consider what is going to help teams thrive moving forward in a context of ongoing change.

With Work From Home arrangements having become the norm for many, hybrid teams benefit when there is a focus on both enhancing RELATIONSHIPS and RESULTS.

At the same time, our styles and preferences around work can become even more pronounced.

The Hybrid Work Styles Quiz was developed by Reconnecting Workspaces author and coach, Jennifer Britton, who has spent the better part of the last three decades supporting individuals, leaders and teams in thriving in hybrid work environments.

Coaching Hybrid Teams can benefit from specialized approaches, and the five-week Coaching the Hybrid Work Styles Team takes us deeper into the context of hybrid and remote work.

The Hybrid Work Styles Quiz™ has been taken by hundreds, supporting them to understand their own preferences for work in the hybrid world. This influences how we partner, make decisions, communicate and want to be supported.
